

FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALE
DE MOTOCYCLISME

2018 FIM ROAD SAFETY AWARD

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme (FIM) is pleased to call for nominations for its Annual Road Safety Award. 2018 sees the ninth edition of this award which was instituted as part of the FIM's contribution to the United Nations Decade of Action for Road Safety. Naturally the award is focused on improving road safety for riders of powered two wheelers - motorcycles, scooters and mopeds.

ELIGIBILITY

The FIM Road Safety Award may be conferred on an individual, a club, a national federation, a governmental organisation, a non-governmental organisation, or a commercial entity.

The history of this award illustrates this scope well:

2010: Greig Craft and the AIP Foundation for low cost motorcycle safety helmets in middle and low income countries.

2011: Andrés Perez Rubio, former motorcycle racing champion, for his work for road safety, in particular barrier safety on the streets.

2012: Ian Burrell MBE and the Ambulance Motorcycle Club of the UK for the helmet medical card (now more than a million distributed worldwide)

2013: The United Kingdom Department for Transport for the SHARP star rating system of independent testing of helmets - modelled on the star rating system for cars.

2014: The KNMV (Royal Dutch Motorcycle Federation) for their work in developing scientifically proven risk awareness training for road riders.

2015: Mr Tony Rich a patrol officer in the AA for his concept for a cycle and motorcycle "awareness" programme directed at drivers. This has become an international campaign promoted by FIA Region One.

2016: Federazione Motociclista Italiana (FMI) for its programme of Road Safety Training.

2017: The Norwegian Motorcycle Union NMCU for their work on the rider training manual Full Kontroll.
