FIM Enduro World Championships & Enduro World Cup 2020 calendar, UPDATE 27 May

In relation to the ongoing Coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic and the associated global travelling restrictions the FIM, the promoter ABC Communications, the relevant national federations and local organisers have agreed to make the following updates regarding the 2020 FIM Enduro World Championships and Enduro World Cup calendars.

We would also like to thank everyone involved for their understanding during this period, as we continue to work hard to preserve as much of the 2020 championship as possible whilst taking into consideration and respecting all the protocols that are in place and whilst monitoring all the national announcements day-by-day in order to ensure the safety of everyone involved.

We will inform you in due course in case of further cancellations, as and when they are decided.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 112 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
