The ISDE is the world's largest annual off-road motorcycle competition and has been running since 1913. Each year, countries from across the globe send teams to compete. Not only the top Enduro rider's but also skilled amateurs and the thriving vintage Enduro scene. In 2019 the competition will return to Europe.

An epic journey across the Algarve

10 years after the first and successful visit to Portugal, the historic event will take place in the sunny Portimão region, between the Atlantic coast and the wild mountainous interior.

Testing reliability, skill and endurance.
