

FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALE
DE MOTOCYCLISME

2017 FIM ROAD SAFETY AWARD

GENERAL INFORMATION & CANDIDATURE PACK

The Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme (FIM) is pleased to call for nominations for its Annual Road Safety Award. 2017 sees the eighth edition of this award which was instituted as part of the FIM's contribution to the United Nations Decade of Action for Road Safety. Naturally the award is focussed on improving road safety for riders of powered two wheelers - motorcycles, scooters and mopeds.

ELIGIBILITY

The FIM Road Safety Award may be conferred on an individual, a club, a national federation, a governmental organisation, a non-governmental organisation, or a commercial entity. The history of this award illustrates this scope well.

2010: Greig Craft and the AIP Foundation for low cost motorcycle safety helmets in middle and low income countries.

2011: Andrés Perez Rubio, former motorcycle racing champion, for his work for road safety, in particular barrier safety on the streets.

2012: Ian Burrell MBE and the Ambulance Motorcycle Club of the UK for the helmet medical card (now more than a million distributed worldwide)

2013: The United Kingdom Department for Transport for the SHARP star rating system of independent testing of helmets - modelled on the star rating system for cars.

2014: The KNMV (Royal Dutch Motorcycle Federation) for their work in developing scientifically proven risk awareness training for road riders.

2015: Mr Tony Rich a patrol officer in the AA for his concept for a cycle and motorcycle "awareness" programme directed at drivers. This has become an international campaign promoted by FIA Region One.

2016: Federazione Motociclista Italiana (FMI) for its programme of Road Safety Training.

NOMINATIONS

These may be made by an individual, or by an individual acting on behalf of an organisation (for example an FIM FMN).

Please find below the details on how to present a nomination to the FIM for the Road Safety Award:

- All documentation should be sent in English
- Describe the individual or organisation you wish to present
- Briefly explain how their work contributes to improving road safety for riders
- Include your contact coordinates in case the judges or the FIM Administration have any further inquiries to make concerning the nomination.

If you wish you can also give details of any referees who are willing to give their support to your nomination. (Or you can include references with your nomination)

If you wish you can also send supporting documentation. For example: details of other awards that have been made for the work concerned, academic reports, or press and media coverage of the work being done to improve road safety by the organisation or individual you are nominating.

The FIM reserves its right not to award the prize, should no candidature be in accordance with the present provisions.
