FIM X-Trial World Championship & Prize

2020 Calendar update 11 March - FIM X-Trial Wiener Neustadt cancelled

As the global outbreak of coronavirus continues to develop, the Austrian Authorities have communicated that it is now forbidden to hold indoor events with more than one hundred people and outdoor events with more than five hundred people in attendance until further notice.

The Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme (FIM), the promoter 2Play, the Austrian Federation (AMF) and the local organiser therefore regret to announce the cancellation of the event that was scheduled to take place on 21 March, in Wiener Neustadt, Austria.

The final of the 2020 FIM X-Trial World Championship will take place in Andorra la Vella (AND), on April 25, 2020.

About the FIM (www.fim-live.com)

The FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme) founded in 1904, is the governing body for motorcycle sport and the global advocate for motorcycling. The FIM is an independent association formed by 111 National Federations throughout the world. It is recognised as the sole competent authority in motorcycle sport by the International Olympic Committee (IOC). Among its 50 FIM World Championships the main events are MotoGP, Superbike, Endurance, Motocross, Supercross, Trial, Enduro, Cross-Country Rallies and Speedway. Furthermore, the FIM is also active and involved in the following areas: public affairs, road safety, touring and protection of the environment. The FIM was the first international sports federation to impose an Environmental Code in 1994.
